Are you ready for some KILLER content right now?

I hope so because what you're about to learn in the next few minutes are what many of the TOP Internet marketers are using this very moment to multiply the traffic they receive to their website(s).

I use and implement this method myself and can testify on its usability and response level.

And best of all, this tactic requires no money at all to implement.

It's 100% FREE and can work wonders when used correctly.

So let's get to it...

There are FOUR easy steps to follow to get this going.

Follow each one in order and you'll know exactly where to find the right people for your website.

Step 1:

What you'll need first are your primary KEYWORDS for the niche that you're in.

Use this to brainstorm and find those words:

<https://adwords.google.com/select/KeywordToolExternal>

These words will describe in detail what kinds of people are looking for what you have to offer.

Step 2:

Position yourself in your customers' shoes and think about what they would ask if they were looking for what you have to offer.

As an example: If you were looking to buy Hip Hop beats on the Internet you would probably ask "where can I buy hip hop beats?"

If YOU were the one selling Hip Hop beats online then the person who's asking this question is just the person you're looking for!

You would even probably ask the same question in several different ways. Such as:

"how can I buy hip hop beats online?"

"are there hip hop beats for sale online?"

"where can I find hip hop beats to buy?"

There are many ways you would phrase this.

All you'll need is a few to start off with.

Step 3:

Create an email account with Google.

Head over to <http://mail.google.com> to create a free email account.

It's best to keep the names of these accounts short and easy to remember.

Step 4:

Go to <http://google.com/alerts> and set up an alert using the question you came up with in Step 2.

Be sure to include the (“”) quotation and (?) question marks to receive precise hits for the words you choose.

These will then get forwarded to your email account.

Within 20 minutes you should start getting feedback and websites of where some of your best leads are located on the web.

What To Do Next:

The websites from the feedback you'll be receiving in the email account is where you'll want to provide a link back to your website where your lead can gain more information and possibly buy from you.

What you really want to do is provide as much value and simply help the other person inquiring about their question.

You never want to spam these sites, or anything for that matter, once you do find them.

Leaving a helpful and relevant comment on a blog post, in a forum, or even on Yahoo! Answers (where I have received some alerts from) and then placing your website link on that site is how you're going to get traffic back to your site.

Also by applying the method above is a double bonus if you can see it...

When you keep placing your link on these sites with helpful information you'll be slowly building more and more backlinks to your website.

And you should know that when it comes to traffic generation it's all about links; the links that link back to your website!

Don't Let This Go To Waste

I mentioned earlier in the beginning of this post that many TOP Internet marketers are using this tactic.

They do it because it works.

Since I've started implementing this tactic into my traffic generating arsenal I have seen a fair amount of free leads coming in from doing this alone.

The best way to monetize this process is to set aside a specific time each day or week to look through each alert that comes in and see if you can add value and place your website link on that site.

Not every feedback alert will be an opportunity to get your link out there for more traffic, but that's fine. Here's why...

Say you get 20 alerts each week but only 14 out of those 20 will give you an opportunity to place your link, well then guess what?

You now have 14 targeted sites looking for what you may have to offer...

Don't let this go to waste!

Start implementing this tactic immediately and watch your leads start trickling to your site, the sooner you do this the more results you'll start seeing.

Final Thoughts...

Well... there you have it.

... One sure-fire traffic strategy anyway.

But of course, there's plenty more where this came from.

Have you heard the expression "don't keep all your eggs in one basket"? I'm sure you have.

Your traffic and lead generating methods should be no different.

Ideally, you should have a MULTITUDE of traffic streams that flood your site with visitors that buy your products or services you offer.

I'm going to let you in on a super "secret" right now... Are you ready for it?

OK then, scroll down...

This is actually what's working for me RIGHT NOW as of writing this...

This short list of websites is what I'm using today to flood my sites with traffic, which of course = $$$.

Traffic Ultimatum:

Two words: YouTube buying.

Click the link above to watch the free video George offers to see how I am PERSONALLY getting hundreds of visitors to my niche affiliate links every single day on complete autopilot.

The clicks I get on a daily basis from this alone is more than comforting and the money keeps rolling in, which makes me a super happy camper. 😊

The course he's selling is saved on my computer database and I check back on it regularly.

You don't have to buy the course (which includes videos and downloadable PDF reports, by the way), but the knowledge you will obtain from it is invaluable.

Angela's Backlinks

I'm ranked on the FIRST page for several keywords I decided to target and it only took me a few weeks to get there (after the "Google dance").

I'm still working my way to the #1 position on the search engines for other keywords but without a doubt I'm getting there.

(By the way, this equals totally FREE traffic for my sites.)

Angela's backlinks are what fueled the fire to blast my way to the top of the search engines and she only charges $5 per MONTH!

Now seriously, take a look at her offer and really consider it.

If you aren't willing to pay five measly bucks per month to grow your business I seriously doubt your willingness to succeed.

Unless you've already got someone hired to do your SEO for you, these backlinks are a steal, and should be a part of your arsenal anyway!

Paul's Backlinks

I use these in conjunction with Angela's backlinks.

Paul offers 15 more backlinks than Angela with slightly less page rank and a slightly higher price (NOTE: The higher the page rank the better) but they're still a great deal.

There...

Those are my top secrets at the moment on how I get a bunch of free targeted traffic to my websites and offers.

Of course, I'm still learning new things and most definitely have more to show you and teach you.

This is just the tip of the iceberg so to speak, I've got tons more traffic generating tricks up my sleeve but I won't reveal them here, just yet.

I encourage you to sign up to my newsletter and visit my blog where you will find even more cool tricks and methods you can use to build and sustain your online business.

Here are the sites I encourage you to sign up to and subscribe to:

<http://www.DarioMontesdeOca.com>

<http://www.PowerfulOnlineProfits.com>

<http://www.SimpleOnlineFormula.com>

The first is my blog where I've got tons of info about Internet marketing and making money online.

The second is my landing page where you can sign up to my newsletter to receive cool tips and training and my latest inside methods of Internet marketing "madness" (the goods).

The last is a special video boot-camp series I discovered during my first baby months marketing online.

What's amazing is, I purchased my first Internet marketing book EVER through that last site and I'm still using those same techniques to this day.

I've got that book right here in front me on my desk where I'm typing this (it's usually in close distance).

And no, I won't reveal which book it is I'll let you find that one out on your own. ;)

All the best,

Dario Montes de Oca
